

Thos. Y. Fitzpatrick, of Prestonsburg, was nominated for Congress at the Democratic convention held at Beattyville last Saturday. The final vote stood, Beckner 34½, Fitzpatrick 40½.

Alonzo Walling has been convicted of complicity of murder of Pearl Bryan and sentenced to be hung.

Cardinal Gibbons evidently thinks he can control the votes of all the Roman Catholics of this country. In his recent letter deprecating the anti-papal agitation he proposes that the whole Catholic vote shall go to the party that does as he desires. How can he make such a proposition if he does not believe he can deliver the goods? The great point made by the A.P.A.'s against the Roman Catholics is that their votes are under the control of the hierarchy. We have been slow to believe that this was universally true. We have clung to the belief that there are many Catholics who refuse to get their politics from Rome. But here comes the foremost man of that church in this country and proposes to cast the Catholic's vote solidly for whichever party shall be most favorable to the interests he has at heart. This looks unfavorable to the view we have sought to hold. We hope some American Catholics who does not get his politics from Rome will speak out.
